CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

The Internship Program (Praktik Kerja Lapangan/PKL) is an important part of the academic curriculum designed to provide students with direct work experience in industry or government agencies. Through internship, students can apply the theoretical knowledge gained in lectures to real work situations. This program aims to bridge the gap between higher education and industry needs, so that students gain a practical understanding of the professional work environment. Internship is also one of the graduation requirements for students at Politeknik Negeri Jakarta, which at the end of the internship program is required to make an internship report on the activities carried out during the internship program and submitted for academic purposes in the lecture.

As a 6th semester student of the English for Business and Professional Communication (BISPRO) Study Program, author had the opportunity to carry out internship at PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif, in Production Division. PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif is a company engaged in Digital Marketing, which focuses on social media development. The company has an important role in creating effective digital marketing strategies and producing engaging content for the client's target audience. The selection of this company is based on the author's focus of study in business and professional communication, especially in the context of digital marketing, as well as the desire to understand the practice of social media management, digital content production, and online marketing strategies in the context of a competitive digital marketing industry.

PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif is known for its result-driven and creative approach in digital marketing. The company holds a strategic role in helping clients achieve Dilarang mengutip sebagian atau seluruh karya tulis ini tanpa mencantumkan dan menyebutkan sumber:

their marketing goals through targeted social media strategies and relevant content. The Production Division, where the Author was assigned, is responsible for planning, producing, and managing social media content for clients, while also understanding the clients' products and services to develop effective messaging. During the internship period, Author was involved in various social media management projects for the company's clients. The main tasks included content creation in the form of copywriting, content writing, visual design, conducting audience, social media trend research, and analyzing social media performance data. Author also contributed to content strategy planning, content calendar development, and engagement with audiences on digital platforms. Valuable experience was gained through participation in digital marketing strategy meetings, creative brainstorming sessions, content production processes, and performance report evaluations.

In the increasingly competitive context of digital marketing, the ability to create engaging and effective content is key to success. Therefore, Author focuses on understanding how optimal copywriting and content design can increase the effectiveness of digital marketing strategies. The internship experience at PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif provides an opportunity for author to observe and learn firsthand how the company implements content strategies in managing client social media, as well as how professional business communication skills, including the use of English, are applied in the context of international digital marketing.

1.2 Scope of Activities

During the internship at the Production Division of PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif, the Author was involved in a variety of activities related to digital marketing strategy and client social media management. The scope of activities included:

1. Author is responsible for creating engaging and relevant media content for the client's various social media platforms.

CHAPTER IV CLOSING

4.1 Conclusion

During the four-month Internship Program (PKL) at PT Pixartistic Sinergi Kreatif. The author gained a lot of valuable experience, especially direct experience in the professional world of work. This is especially in the field of digital marketing and social media content copywriting. The author is actively involved in various content creation production processes, starting from briefs, research, writing scripts to recapitulating the results of client social media content engagement. This activity gave the author a deeper understanding of the importance of communication. Effective communication and an understanding of the right digital marketing strategy can help clients reach the target audience optimally. Through this field work practice, the author is able to develop technical skills, creativity and also professional teamwork. Because the author really has a considerable interest in the creative world, this Field Work Practice will certainly have a very significant impact on the development of the author's career in the future.

4.2 Suggestion

Throughout the internship period, the author realized that mental readiness and practical skills are essential aspects in facing a professional work environment. Students must equip themselves with a proactive attitude, a strong willingness to learn, and good communication skills. In addition, openness to guidance and constructive criticism is key to self-development. With a strong work ethic, the internship experience will serve as a valuable foundation for entering the professional world.

For my college students, who are going to do their internship, don't hesitate to try new things and take small steps. The internship period is not the end of career Dilarang mengutip sebagian atau seluruh karya tulis ini tanpa mencantumkan dan menyebutkan sumber:

determination, but rather the beginning of getting to know one's potential and preferences more concretely. Through active involvement in various work processes, students can evaluate the fields that best suit their interests and abilities. Therefore, take advantage of every opportunity to learn and develop to the fullest.

Internships are a perfect opportunity to explore your skills, build a portfolio of work, and expand your professional network. During this process, focus not only on the end result, but also on understanding the work process and the values of professionalism. The more experience gained during the PKL, the greater the readiness to face the challenges of the world of work. Thus, PKL will be a strong starting point for your future career.
