CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background Activities

Internship is one of the academic activities that aims to directly apply the academic knowledge obtained during studies on campus, so that students can develop their abilities, especially in the field of translation. The objectives of this PKL program are in line with the objectives of Politeknik Negeri Jakarta which is a vocational higher education institution that strives to produce graduates who are expected to have competence in upholding the economy and the country through human resources who have practical and adequate expertise. Therefore, in order to realize this goal, BISPRO Study Program students conduct PKL to apply their translation knowledge that has been learned during the previous few semesters. This PKL program is also expected to be a forum for students to gain knowledge, skills, relationships, and experience.

During the PKL, the author was assigned to create job descriptions in accordance with company standards, focusing on finding information on job description qualifications and adjusting the job description qualifications according to each division. In addition, the author was also assigned to create a Business Text Translation project that included Business Development Job Descriptions documents. In this report, the author will describe the process of editing the documents into Indonesian. The author will also explain the obstacles such as challenges and obstacles while carrying out PKL activities and how the author overcomes these obstacles.

The reason the author chose PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana is because the author sees that the company has documents from abroad that can be translated in accordance with what the author learned during the lecture. The documents that the author translates are business texts. The reason why I chose business texts is because they are relevant to what I learned in college and they are very often used in the translation industry.

1.2 Scope of Activities

The scope of activities carried out during the PKL are:

- 1. translate business texts on Business Development Job Description documents at PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana;
- carried out duties in the Project Manager Division in making Job Descriptions, Inputting Headcount Data, Making PowerPoint "Mersi English Program", Editing Mersi Newsletter Design, Inputting Business Card Data and Supplier Product Names belonging to PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana.

1.3 Time and Place of Implementation

The time and place of the PKL was held on:

Implementation Time : March 4, 2024 to June 28, 2024

Company : PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana

Address : Wisma Tiara 4th FL, Jl. Raya Pasar Minggu KM

CHAPTER IV CLOSING

4.1 Conclusion

Based on the field work practice activities that have been carried out by the author, it can be concluded that the author has completed field work practice activities at PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana for three months, starting from March 4, 2024 to June 28, 2024. The author was placed in three different departments, namely General Affairs, Project Manager and Business Development. The author chose PT Mersifarma Tirmaku Mercusana because the company has documents that can be translated, namely Job Description Qualifications and Gross National Product (GMP) in accordance with what the author learned during lectures. The author can also overcome obstacles thanks to the help of others and the results of observations that the author has made.

4.2 Suggestions

Based on the results of the PKL implementation, the author has several suggestions addressed to the BISPRO Study Program and to the translators. The suggestions that the author gives are as follows.

1. Suggestions for Bispro Study Program

To the Bispro Study Program, the author suggests to socialize in advance to students who want to do this field work practice program and give directions to any agency or company that provides translation internships. By doing this socialization, students will be better prepared in carrying out this PKL program.

2. Advice for Translators

The author advises translators to translate texts that they are interested in and are familiar with, considering that translation in certain fields has some special terms in translating them. In order for the translation to be a translation that is commensurate in conveying the meaning and content of BSa. Students must also prepare supporting tools, in this case printed dictionaries and online dictionaries such as Oxford Dictionary, Cambridge Dictionary and Deepl Translation to translate a text in two languages. Students must learn to do good research. Finding the right mentor is also a must if you want to get into this field. If you have found the right mentor, the author suggests asking questions frequently and learning from mistakes.
